Didier Lourenço, self-taught artist born in Barcelona in 1968. Exhibits in Jordi Barnadas' gallery since 1994. Passionate about what he makes, inspiration always finds him with brushes in hand.

His work, in constant evolution, maintains an unmistakable style. He is building a solid artistic trajectory thanks to his universal language and, surely, to the optimism and positivity that his pieces convey.

Kindness in his work leaves him out of today's current artistic trends, enriching the world of art and seducing the viewer. His work is placed above the fashions and grows by itself with a great connection to the public.
